

Charts of Acceptable Verification for Citizenship and Identify Medical Assistance and General Assistance

10-07

The following charts list acceptable documentation of U.S. citizenship and identity for medical assistance and General Assistance determinations. A hierarchical approach is used when obtaining documentation. Documents must be initially requested from the list of primary documents, found in Chart A, before considering documents in Chart B, Chart C or Chart D.

Current and former Medicare beneficiaries, current and former SSI recipients, current and former SSD recipients, foster care recipients, and adoption support recipients are exempt from these requirements.

See KEESM 1322.1\(5\) and KEESM 2145.2.

The following process is used when considering documentary evidence:

1. A primary document presented from Chart A, Primary Documents For both Citizenship and Identity, must be initially considered. These items are the only items that provide documentation of both citizenship and identity. If a document from this list is provided, no other documentation is needed.
2. If one of these documents is not readily available, two separate documents must be provided:
 - An item from a subsequent citizenship chart AND
 - An item from Chart I - Documents to Verify Identity or, for children under age 16, an item from Chart J - Documents to Verify Identity for Children Under age 16
3. Consider items from Chart B - Secondary Documents to Establish U.S. Citizenship after determining an item in Chart A is not available.
4. If an item in Chart B isn't available, request an item from Chart C - Third Level Documents to Establish U.S. Citizenship.
5. If an item from Chart C isn't available, request an item from Chart D - Fourth Level Documents to Establish U.S. Citizenship.
6. Obtain a separate document to document identity from Chart I. An item from Chart J may be used for children under age 16.
7. Individuals receiving U.S. citizenship status through collective naturalization are listed in Chart N.
8. Note some documents can not be used for verification of either citizenship or identity. Examples include: Social security card or other court records where a place of birth is not listed.
